Teshuvah: Repentance, Forgiveness, Reconciliation

Led by Carl Viniar

What does Kevin Costner have to do with Yom Kippur? He made the movie Field of Dreams. You thought that movie was about baseball? Well, no, it was actually about repentance, forgiveness and reconciliation, about getting complete with the past. On Yom Kippur afternoon, via Zoom, we will discuss Field of Dreams and throw in a little of Pixar's Inside Out.

We will not be showing film clips, rather discussing these holy day themes. Field of Dreams is available on Comcast, free if you have Starz as part of your subscription, and on Amazon. Inside Out is free on Disney Plus, and available for $3.99 on both Comcast and Amazon. So watch these movies, again or for the first time. They are great films. Only this time, watch through the lens of Yom Kippur themes. Let's see what comes up.

Registration is required. Please visit mkorshalom.org/hhd2020.

These High Holy Day study sessions are free and open to the community.
